Hey Transportation Small Group,

I trust that you all have had a good weekend, ensconced in your homes, and hopefully having time with family or friends who are similarly housebound.

I have put together and am sharing with this email a list of the Transportation comments that have been received. This is based on ESA's preliminary bracketing. I will update this list if there are changes to the bracketing or receipt of additional letters prior to our discussion tomorrow.

All the best,

Brian
