The Los Angeles Clippers announced today that the city of Inglewood has approved the construction of a new arena and practice facility. The arena will be located on the site of the former Inglewood Coliseum. The arena will be a state-of-the-art facility that will provide a world-class basketball arena, practice facility and team offices for the L.A. Clippers. The arena will be a multi-use facility that will also provide a venue for other events. The arena will be a major addition to the city of Inglewood and will provide a new landmark for the city.

Opinion: Can Working Parents Still Teach Their Kids at Home?

As parents, we want the best for our children. We want them to be successful and happy. One of the best ways to ensure this is by providing them with a strong education. However, with the demands of a modern career, it can be difficult to find the time and resources to provide a quality education at home. This is a challenge that many working parents face. It is important to find ways to overcome these challenges and ensure that our children receive the best possible education. There are many options available, including online learning and hybrid models. It is important to research these options and find the one that works best for your family.
