Clippers Arena in Inglewood Cleared to Go

The construction of the project will include a world-class basketball arena, practice facility and team offices for the L.A. Clippers.

Mayor Fitch, (left), Mayor Tom LaBov, (center), and Mayor Tom LaBov, (right), with other city officials, announced the project for the new arena and practice facility for the L.A. Clippers.

The arena will be a state-of-the-art facility with a seating capacity of 18,000. The arena will be located on the site of the former Inglewood Forum, which was demolished in 2001. The arena will be built on a 10-acre site located on the intersection of Harbor Blvd and Harbor Gateway.
