Opinion: Can Working Parents Still Teach Their Kids at Home?

Can working parents still teach their kids at home? This is a question that many parents are asking. The answer is yes, but it is not always easy. Working parents have a lot of responsibilities, and it can be difficult to find time to spend with their kids. However, there are ways to make it work. Parents can set aside time each day to spend with their kids, even if it is just 15 minutes. They can also involve their kids in household chores and other activities that teach them important life skills.
