

Message

From: Ken Miller | Publisher [willie@inglewoodtoday.com]
Sent: 7/23/2020 9:14:00 AM
To: Ericka Ford [/o=Inglewood/ou=Exchange Administrative Group
(FYDIBOHF23SPDLT)/cn=Recipients/cn=9080705f4fc44d8f97f370af97309250-Ericka Ford]
Subject: Clippers Arena Obtain Major Approval

Clippers Arena Obtain Major Approval

View this email in your browser

26 Celebrating 26 Years of Service in Inglewood, Airport Area Communities

City of Champions

INGLEWOOD TODAY

EVERETT COMMUNITY

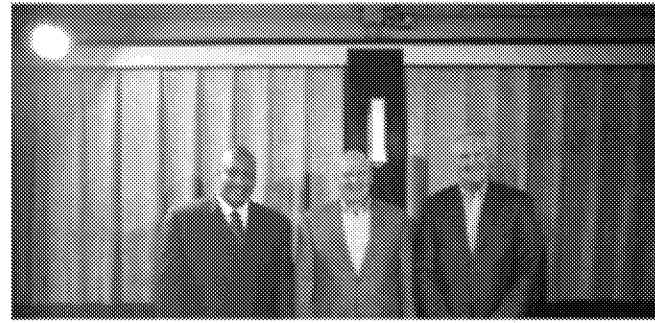

Your Community Connection Since 1964

Rams Chargers Clippers Forum STADIUM & Lakers

Vol. 38, No. 21 November 17, 2016 $5.00

Clippers Arena in Inglewood Cleared to Go

The construction of the project will include a world-class basketball arena, practice facility and team offices for the L.A. Clippers.

Mayor Fitch, (left), Mayor Tom LaBov, (center), and Los Angeles Clippers arena architect, (right) at the arena site in Inglewood.

The Los Angeles Clippers arena project, which will include a world-class basketball arena, practice facility and team offices for the L.A. Clippers, is set to begin construction in Inglewood. The arena will be built on a 10-acre site in the city's downtown area. The project is being developed by the Los Angeles Clippers and is expected to be completed in 2018. The arena will be the largest arena in the world and will be a major addition to the city's sports and entertainment district.

Brad Pyle, Jr. laid to rest in Inglewood

Brad Pyle, Jr. was laid to rest in Inglewood on Monday, Nov. 14, 2016. Pyle was a former professional basketball player and coach. He played for the Los Angeles Lakers and the Los Angeles Clippers. He was also a coach for the Los Angeles Clippers and the Los Angeles Lakers. Pyle was a member of the National Basketball Association Hall of Fame. He was a member of the Los Angeles Clippers Hall of Fame. He was a member of the Los Angeles Lakers Hall of Fame. He was a member of the Los Angeles Clippers Hall of Fame. He was a member of the Los Angeles Lakers Hall of Fame.

Opinion: Can Working Parents Still Teach Their Kids at Home?

Can working parents still teach their kids at home? This is a question that many parents are asking. The answer is yes, but it is not always easy. Working parents have a lot of responsibilities and it can be difficult to find time to spend with their kids. However, there are ways to make it work. Parents can use technology to help them teach their kids. They can also use online resources to find activities and lessons. Parents can also use their own time to teach their kids. They can read to their kids, play with them, and talk to them about their day. Parents can also use their own experiences to teach their kids. They can show their kids how to do things and how to solve problems. Parents can also use their own skills to teach their kids. They can teach their kids how to do things that they are good at. Parents can also use their own time to teach their kids. They can read to their kids, play with them, and talk to them about their day. Parents can also use their own experiences to teach their kids. They can show their kids how to do things and how to solve problems. Parents can also use their own skills to teach their kids. They can teach their kids how to do things that they are good at.

© issuu

CLICK HERE TO READ NOW

Copyright © 2018 INGLEWOOD TODAY NEWS , All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:
9111 S. LA CIENEGA BLVD. SUITE 100
INGLEWOOD, CA. 90301

(310) 670-9600 OFFICE

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.