

July 29, 2020

To Whom It May Concern:

D & D Engineering, Inc. is authorized by the City of Inglewood in matters pertaining to the acquisition of existing and proposed underground substructure maps showing size and location of all facilities and/or utilities within the limits of Century and 103rd, and Freeman and Doty. The information is required for the purpose of creating construction drawings for underground utilities to proposed developments in the vicinity.