CENTINELA SPRINGS

Historical Landmark

Description:

Bubbling springs once flowed here from their source in a deep water basin that has existed continuously since the Pleistocene Era. Prehistoric animals, Indians, and early Inglewood settlers were attracted here by the pure artesian water. The springs and valley were named after sentinels guarding cattle in the area.

Registration Date: 10/9/1939

Location:

City: Inglewood

County: Los Angeles

Directions:

Centinela Park, 700 Warren Ln, Inglewood
