Subject: Re: Availability for Conference Call w/ Consultant Team

Thank you David. Fred please let us know what time works for your group. Any time after 1:30pm central works well for me.

I'm in the air all morning tomorrow and am scheduled to land around 11:30 CA time so I could join anytime after that. Otherwise Joe can do it without me.

Hello Fred,

David is currently in the air at the moment. Tomorrow afternoon would work better for me. I'll confirm that works with David when he lands and circle back.

Subject: Availability for Conference Call w/ Consultant Team

David,

I apologize for the late notice, but curious if you and Joe are available either today or tomorrow to discuss your findings with the IBEC consultant team?

I left a voice message regarding the same.
