UCLA Star quarterback Josh Rosen will shine before he is picked as the number 1 quarterback in the draft. Go Bruins!

What about Lasley? I picked him up on a waiver (fantasy) and he's sick

George Hyde Obviously he wasn't too sick to play! Probably just some food poisoning that came and went, so to speak...

George Hyde got to wonder how long it should take a coach to realize that the one man covering him was not able to do so. reminds me of the game that youngest Ball scored 90+ points, and the opposing coach never put a player on him to stop the fast break, Easy to guess about it in hindsight. He played exceptionally and he will regret his inability to control his temper as heard that was part of the reason he lost several games this year.

so I am watching the game and in the second half Cal decides to go for first down instead of field goal. Wonder if they are second guessing that decision and the momentum switch that happened.

Michael Dyer
I thought that was a dumb move too. UCLA has a backup qb in there so I would have had a little more faith in the defense.

Jean Vandevelde
One might say all PAC 12 teams are good, if the team with the best record (USC) didn't loose badly to Notre Dame (not mentioning Stanford losing to San Diego State)...

---

Richard Hernandez
Jean Vandevelde funny how you left out that Stanford beat ND. The Pac 12 has the best record vs Power 5 teams. PAC 12 went 2-0 vs the "best conference" SEC
