Article 20. Definitions

14 CCR § 15358

§ 15358. Effects.

“Effects” and “impacts” as used in these guidelines are synonymous.

(a) Effects include:

- (1) Direct or primary effects which are caused by the project and occur at the same time and place as the project.
- (2) Indirect or secondary effects which are caused by the project and are later in time or farther removed in space, but are reasonably foreseeable. Indirect or secondary effects may include growth-inducing effects and related changes in the pattern of land use, population density, or growth rate, and related effects on a region or systems, including ecosystems.

(b) Effects analyzed under CEQA must be related to a physical change.
