Thank you. I think 1:00 is best. Do we need to get others on the phone or the meeting as well?, especially someone from Economic Development? And I think Whit Manley was interested as well.

Amy,

Good Morning.

Mindy and I are available on Friday, December 7th to meet early afternoon around 1:00pm or 2:00 pm after you have completed area exploration.

Let us know?

Thanks,
Fred

Fred, my apologies for not getting back to you. I've had a heavy workload, and have been working on clearing things out so I can best launch into this project. I had hoped to be able to come down before Thanksgiving, but realized that with all my commitments I could not make that work.

Upcoming dates that look good for me to come down are Tuesday, Dec. 4 or Friday, Dec. 7. Can we explore if one of those dates will work? I would fly down in the morning, probably want to drive around a bit before meeting, and then do more area exploration after a meeting.

There is an 8:15 am flight that gets me in to LAX at 9:40 am. That would be the earliest I could get there. I would need to rent a car. You would know better than me what that might mean for a possible meeting time, allowing for a little site reconnaissance first.

Please let me know if either of these dates could work for you and others at the City who should be in the meeting. I'm sorry I haven't been able to get there yet, or right after Thanksgiving. For some reason I have a big crush of public hearings for projects, keeping me close to the office right now.

Hi Amy,

I just left a voice message, but wanted to check in and find out how things are going and when you might be traveling to Inglewood to conduct your initial due diligence?

Please let either Mindy or I know your schedule and if you have any questions.

Regards,
Fred
