List of National Basketball Association arenas

The following list includes all current and former arenas used by current and defunct teams playing in the National Basketball Association (NBA). Other information included in this list are arena locations, seating capacities, years opened, and in use.

The United Center has the highest capacity of any current NBA arena at 20,917. Madison Square Garden is the only current arena not to be named after a corporate sponsor.

Chase Center, the newest arena in the NBA, will open in 2019. It is the home of the Golden State Warriors.
