Dan,

I talked to Christina. So, heretofore on this project we have been sending materials to the applicant team through Wilson Meany and Montgomery Advisors, and it has been their responsibility to get it into the relevant hands within the applicant team. If I recall, I think that at the outset there was a sense that keeping the distribution list small was better. That said, we are fine including you and your colleagues at Coblentz on the direct email delivery of these materials, after the agreed-to preliminary review by RMM. Unless directed otherwise, we'll make sure that you, Tay, and Rob are on the distribution list in the future.

Have a great Thanksgiving. See you on Monday.

Brian

Thanks Brian. Can you and Christina please ensure that Rob, Tay, and I are copied on all calendar invites and transmittals going forward? None of us received the transmittal on 11/15, and Tay wasn't on this calendar invite as far as I can tell.

Thanks,
Dan
