Subject: Re: IBEC Question -- Sign Tower

Hi, Steve,

We're just calling that element the sign tower, though there's nothing particularly fixed about that label – it's a large vertical element and the only purpose is signage so we've just been describing it as a "sign tower" in our materials, since it seems most apt.

Hi Dennis,

Can you remind me what the official name is for the tower element in the attached image at you soonest opportunity?

Thanks!
